

Penguins

Penguins are birds that cannot fly. Instead of having wings for flying, penguins have flippers. Penguins can live in cold and warm habitats. Penguins spent half of their time in the water and half of their time on land. They eat fish, shrimp, krill, and squid. Penguins like to play with each other.

What kind of animal is a penguin? _____

Where do penguins live? _____

What do penguins eat? _____