Simple or Compound?

Sometimes conjunctions appear in simple sentences. Decide whether each of the sentences is simple or compound. Circle your response. Remember, compound sentences contain two simple sentences connected by a conjunction.

1. In his lifetime, Jefferson Davis worked both for and against the United States of America. 2. He served in the army and as a congressman, senator, and secretary of war. 3. As a senator, Jefferson Davis spoke in favor of slavery and states' rights, but he did not support the idea of secession from the Union. 4. Then his home state of Mississippi seceded, and he resigned his position as senator. 5. He ordered the South's attack on Fort Sumter, and he became president of the Confederate States of America. 6. He was elected for a six-year term, but he was not popular with many of the people who voted for him. 7. His leadership and his war tactics were questioned. 8. In 1865, Jefferson Davis was captured and imprisoned. 9. Eventually, he was indicted for treason, but the United States government dropped the charges. simple compound senator, and secretary of war. 3. As a senator, Jefferson Davis spoke in favor of slavery and states' rights, but he did not support the idea of secession from the Union. 4. Then his home state of Mississippi seceded, and he resigned his position as senator. 5. He ordered the South's attack on Fort Sumter, and he became president of the Confederate States of America. 6. He was elected for a six-year term, but he was not popular with many of the people who voted for him. 7. His leadership and his war factics were questioned. 8. In 1865, Jefferson Davis was captured and imprisoned. 9. Eventually, he was indicted for treason, but the		simple	compound slavery and states' rights, but he did not support the idea of secession from the Union. 4. Then his home state of Mississippi seceded, and he resigned his position as senator. 5. He ordered the South's attack on Fort Sumter, and he became president of the Confederate States of America. 6. He was elected for a six-year term, but he was not popular with many of the people who voted for him. 7. His leadership and his war tactics were questioned. 8. In 1865, Jefferson Davis was captured and imprisoned. 9. Eventually, he was indicted for treason, but the		simple	compound and he resigned his position as senator. 5. He ordered the South's attack on Fort Sumter, and he became president of the Confederate States of America. 6. He was elected for a six-year term, but he was not popular with many of the people who voted for him. 7. His leadership and his war tactics were questioned. 8. In 1865, Jefferson Davis was captured and imprisoned. 9. Eventually, he was indicted for treason, but the	slavery and states' rights, but he did not support	simple	compound and he became president of the Confederate States of America. 6. He was elected for a six-year term, but he was not popular with many of the people who voted for him. 7. His leadership and his war tactics were questioned. 8. In 1865, Jefferson Davis was captured and imprisoned. 9. Eventually, he was indicted for treason, but the		simple	compound not popular with many of the people who voted for him. 7. His leadership and his war tactics were questioned. 8. In 1865, Jefferson Davis was captured and imprisoned. 9. Eventually, he was indicted for treason, but the	and he became president of the Confederate	simple	compound
8. In 1865, Jefferson Davis was captured and imprisoned. 9. Eventually, he was indicted for treason, but the	not popular with many of the people who	simple	compound
9. Eventually, he was indicted for treason, but the	7. His leadership and his war tactics were questioned.	simple	compound
	8. In 1865, Jefferson Davis was captured and imprisoned.	simple	compound
		simple	compound