I recently saw Meet the Parents and was very pleased with the movie. It is a comedy directed by Jay Roach. This movie is filled with amazing actors who truly make the film. First, Robert De Niro gives a legendary performance in this film and is absolutely hilarious. Ben Stiller in his leading role is his usual funny self. Finally, Owen Wilson is also good for a lot of laughs throughout the film, even though he is playing a supporting role. The casting for this movie is truly perfect, and the actors do not disappoint. The film takes place in a lovely house in the East Coast of the USA.

The story represents what happens when a man is introduced to his girlfriend's family for the first time. During his first meeting with his in-law, Greg (Stiller) gets himself into confusing situations involving family pets, lies, family members, fires, and even sporting games. The acting is excellent, certain parts are very funny and the ending is unpredictable, you'll be on the edge of your seat waiting to see what will happen in the end.

Overall, this is a great movie. If you're looking for a comedy for all the family, this is the movie for you.
