Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to complain about what happened yesterday at your supermarket.

It started when I couldn't find a parking space. Normally, there are enough parking spaces, but yesterday the parking lot was full. I had to pay to leave my car in a garage!

Next, when I tried to enter the supermarket, there were just too many people around the entrance. Because of the crowd, I couldn't get in for almost fifteen minutes. When I finally got inside the store, I saw that you were giving customers a free bar of chocolate.

I also saw that some people took too many bars. One lady, for example, took ten bars, and then five other people copied her! This sort of behavior meant that there weren't enough chocolate bars for everybody. Obviously, if you want to do this type of activity, you should have enough staff to control the crowd.

I got the last bar but when I tried it, I found that it had too much sugar! At least I was able to do my shopping, but I didn't enjoy the experience.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Ranier

Dear Mrs. Ranier,

I'm sorry that you had a bad experience at our store. I apologize that there weren't

_____ . We will refund what you paid in the garage. I'm sorry that there were _____ outside and that it took you a long time to get into the store. We'll try to do better next time, so this won't happen again. I realize that we didn't have _____ to control this type of group behavior. We have apologized to all our customers because there weren't

_____ .

It's too bad that you didn't like the chocolate because it had _____ .

We hope that you come back to our store and that your next visit will be more pleasant.

Kind regards,

The Management
