IMPOSSIBLE TO MISS: DADDY YANKEE

We have to say it: Ramón Ayala is a staple of taste in fashion! Daddy Yankee's style has change quite little in the last two decades, and we can expect from him to comfortable clothes based on the occasion.

When Daddy Yankee is on the red carpet for an award show we often see him a simple but modern suit. He caps nor hats, but he a chain around his neck to complement the style.

When performing on the stage of that award show, Daddy Yankee jeans and shirts, sometimes he a jacket on. All depends on the award show and if he is being accompanied by other artist on stage.

When it comes to the day-to-day, he is known as the King of streetwear. He usually a jacket over a t-shirt. His pants baggy, mostly jeans and track pants. It's important to understand that an essential part of this style is sunglasses, a watch, chains, rings and earrings. We will always see him with some of those on.

Daddy Yankee quite tall: he 5'7" tall. He tattoos, which he shows in music videos. He medium built and light skinned. He thick eyebrows, a small nose and a broad smile. Something interesting about his style is that he a buzz cut, which he has not changed in over twenty years! He also a beauty mark on his left cheek, which is also another thing that makes him be easily recognizable.

Truly when it comes to style this man is iconic.
