

Learning Unit8: A source of inspiration Phrasal Verbs Exercise

I. Read the following story and complete the blanks using phrasal verbs:

*found out
*ended up

*set off
*come into

*got off
*set up

*broke down

When I work this morning, my car , so I taking the bus. As soon as I , I bumped into an old schoolmate, Mark. While we were talking, he brought up something I had already from some mutual friends- that he'd some money and had his own business. He told me that there was a lot to sort out, and offered to take me on, but I turned him down straight away.

*turned out
*clocked in

*blown up
*got over

*get away with *make up for

When I , my boss had a go at me, telling me off in front of everyone. When I the initial shock, I told her I'd being late, but it that she had over a deal that had fallen through, after a client of mine pulled out of a contract. She told me that I wouldn't it, that I'd let everybody down., and just went on and on...

*go ahead

*worked out

*ran out

*put up with

Eventually I of patience and answered back- I said I wasn't going to it anymore, and if she wanted to lay me off, she should . Anyway, to cut a long story short, I stormed out, and told Mark that I would accept his offer. So, in the end, everything perfectly.