IV. WORD FORMATION

It is sometimes said that 'Your schooldays are the happiest days of your life', and people often feel that this should be a period of (0) enjoyment. However, exams often affect students' happiness, and many students express a (1) _____ for alternative methods of assessment, where the work they do throughout the year counts towards their final mark. They say that exams test short-term memory and (2) _____, which is forgotten immediately after the exam. Also, assessing coursework as part of the final mark changes students' (3) _____, making them more responsible about studying. There are some students, however, who prefer final examinations, saying that in (4) _____ they only have to work hard for two months a year and so they have more time for their leisure (5) _____. They say that some students receive (6) _____ with their coursework from their parents, so it is not an accurate (7) _____ of how hard they have worked or of their real (8) _____ in the subject they are studying.
