

UNIT 12 D

LISTENING EXERCISE

 12.12 Answer the questions. Watch or listen again and check.

- | | | | |
|--|--------------|---------|----------------|
| 1 Who cooked the food for the party? | Penny | Ethan | Jack |
| 2 Who sent flowers, chocolate, and biscuits? | Penny | Ethan | Jack |
| 3 Did Kate organize the party on her own? | Yes, she did | | No, she didn't |
| 4 Whose parents arrive at the party? | Simon's | Penny's | Ethan's |

 12.13 Complete the sentences with the phrases in the box. Listen, check, and repeat after the beeps.

it was easy Glad you noticed You're welcome I had help it isn't a problem

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 1 Kate | Oh, and thanks again for taking this parcel. |
| Simon | Really, _____. |
| 2 Simon | You look great, Pen. Is that a new dress? |
| Penny | Thanks. _____! |
| 3 Penny | Jack, you really made a fantastic meal! |
| Jack | Oh, come on, _____. I make this all the time. |
| 4 Simon | Lovely. I'm so grateful to you both! |
| Penny | It was nothing. _____. |
| 5 Simon | That was a fantastic surprise. Kate, did you do all this by yourself? |
| Kate | No, _____! |

Skill responding modestly

We often respond to congratulations, thanks, and compliments in a modest way.

- For congratulations, you can say it wasn't important or hard work, e.g., It was nothing, I was just lucky.
- For thanks, you can say it was something small or you enjoyed doing it, e.g., No problem. It was a pleasure. You're welcome.
- For a compliment, you can thank the person and say you are pleased, e.g., Thanks. I'm glad you like it.
You can also say it's not as good as the person thinks, e.g., This old thing? I've had it for years.

 12.14 Read the Skill box. Match phrases 1–6 with responses a–f. Listen and check.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 I can't thank you enough. | a Really? I thought it was too spicy. |
| 2 I love your new hairstyle. | b Oh, it's just an small one. |
| 3 This chicken is delicious. | c Thanks. I'm glad you noticed. |
| 4 You passed! Congratulations. | d It was a pleasure. They're lots of fun! |
| 5 Thanks for taking care of my children. | e Thanks. The exam wasn't that difficult. |
| 6 Congratulations on your promotion. | f It's no problem. |