

3 Branches of Government (Test)

Executive	Legislative	Judicial	President	2	4	6	9	435
100	House of Representatives	Congress	Senate	Cabinet
Supreme Court	Vice President

1. There are _____ Senators and _____ House of Representatives.
2. Our government is divided into _____ branches.
3. The _____ appoints judges to the _____ and there are _____ of them.
4. The branches are _____, _____, and _____.
5. This branch decides if law agrees with the constitution, _____.
6. The most important duty of the _____ branch is to make laws.
7. It is made up of the _____ and the _____.
8. The President is advised by the _____.
9. The _____ branch is made up of the _____, the _____ and the _____.
10. _____ is the head of the _____ branch and they meet at the White House.
11. _____ signs bills to laws and can veto or reject bills.

Match the Branch (Executive, Legislative, Judicial) to the Statements:

1. Declare war. _____
2. Sign bills into laws. _____
3. Decide if laws agree with the Constitution. _____
4. Declare laws unconstitutional. _____
5. Vetoes bills. _____
6. Vote on whether or not the bills should become laws.

7. Make laws and write bills. _____