

Verb 'to have'

Grammar

When the verb 'to have' is used as a full verb, it can mean:

To possess

To suffer

To eat

He has a lot of cash.

She has fever.

He has carrots for snacks.

Has: present tense - She has, He has, It has, Ronit has

Have: present tense - I have, You have, We have, They have

Had: past tense - with all plural and singular (I/You/She/They/We)

<https://youtu.be/6RZQTJ1gLzo>

Verb 'to have'

Grammar

Choose the correct option to complete the sentences.

1. He _____ many books.
2. Ritu _____ an older brother.
3. Those houses _____ red roofs.
4. They _____ pizza for lunch yesterday.
5. I usually _____ milk for breakfast.
6. You _____ a headache, so please rest.
7. We still _____ a lot of clothes to give away.

Fill in the blanks with has, have or had.

1. All monkeys do not _____ long tails.
2. We usually _____ dal, roti and a vegetable for lunch
3. His dog _____ fever yesterday.
4. The tomato plant _____ got flowers.
5. They _____ not submitted their work, so they got scolded.
6. Some of my friends _____ planned to go on a holiday.
7. Aditiri _____ long hair but I _____ short hair.

Verb 'to have'

Grammar

Choose the best option. (hasn't / haven't)

1. He _____ got any money left in the bank.
2. They _____ been for their interview as yet.
3. You _____ phoned me as yet. When will you call?
4. I _____ seen that film yet.
5. Meena _____ cleaned her room.
6. I am still doing my project. It _____ been completed as yet.

Write a sentence for each of the following words: has, have, had, haven't, hadn't
