

Changing Indirect Speech to Direct Speech

Change each sentence into direct speech.

Remember to check your punctuation.

1. Julian said that he would like to go to London the next day.
2. Siya said that she was in the house when the alarm went off.
3. Keller asked whether Rolan was going to the party.
4. The old man said that the children should go play at the park.
5. Susie whispered that there was a burglar in the kitchen.
6. Glen asked if Tim was studying for his exam the next week.
7. Tristan asked whether he could help Peter that weekend.
8. The waitress asked whether we would like some water.
9. Betty said that she had not slept a wink the previous night.

Connect each the words in indirect speech to what they would be in direct speech.

- | | | |
|---------------------|---|------------------|
| that day | • | • tomorrow |
| the next day | • | • this weekend |
| the previous night | • | • today |
| that weekend | • | • tomorrow night |
| the following night | • | • last night |

Reflection:

What stood out for you today?

What could have helped you to improve your understanding today?