

Task 2: You will read some problematic situations. Use should and shouldn't to give pieces of advice.

1) Your new teacher uses a wheelchair.

You _____ open the door for her.

You _____ laugh at her.

2) There is a new mate in your class who is hungry and hasn't got money to buy food.

You _____ ask him what he needs.

You _____ make fun of him.

3) There is a new mate in your class who has a leg in a plaster cast.

You _____ kick him.

You _____ help him.

4) There is a mate in your class who can't see well.

You _____ call him names.

You _____ tell him what he can't see.

5) One of your classmates is lost in the Maths class and doesn't understand the explanations.

You _____ guide him.

You _____ call him dumb.

6) There is a new classmate from South Africa.

You _____ put her aside.

You _____ be nice to her.

