

LISTENING PRACTICE

I. Listen to the audio and complete.

GRANDMA: We want to buy a computer so we can use I'd like to email my old friend in Australia.

SUZY: Do you know how to use a, Grandma?

GRANDMA: No, not really. Can you show us, please?

STELLA: Yeah, first you have to turn the computer on. Push this here. Then you have to turn on the That's this button here. Now you hold the mouse in your hand and ...

GRANDMA: What mouse?

SUZY: This here, Grandma. It's called a because it's got a long tail. Look.

GRANDMA: Oh, I see.

STELLA: Then you click on this program, and you can write your

SIMON: OK. What do you want to do Grandpa?

GRANDPA: I want to go on the Internet. I want to buy a or a video about fishing.

SIMON: You don't want a video Grandpa, a DVD is better because you can watch it on your new computer. Now you need an, Grandpa.

GRANDPA: No, Simon. Now I need a cup of tea.