

Occupies, species, steppe, spread over, graceful, menace, mammals, cranes, memorable, endangered, rare, protection.

Ascania – Nova is an area of about 34,000 hectares, is a oasis.

The local zoo the area of 62 hectares.

There are hundreds of of plants to be found there, 85 of which are considered to be and 12 have entered the Red Book of Species.

Species are under the of state.

Wandering through Ascania one can see foxes hunting and deer grazing.

The animals seem to know that no harm or should be expected from man.

The Ascania – Nova Zoo has many species of birds, such as: ostriches, swans and

Some species of that are kept in the Zoo are very unique.

Any visit to this Natural Reserve will be .