

VOCABULARY TEST about "American flag stands for tolerance" passage - B -

embraces slaughter	virtually cherish	robust modicum	distinguish orthodoxy	predecessors compel
-----------------------	----------------------	-------------------	--------------------------	------------------------

1. These factors have supported continued growth in real business residential investment, which stood at 9.6 per cent in the first half of 2004.
2. Each Defiant attack was designed to draw your ships away from that sector leaving it defenseless.
3. They rebuild a society that all Rwandese and provides justice, peace and reconciliation for all of them.
4. The Shahnameh is a monument of poetry and historiography, being mainly the poetical recast of what Ferdowsi, his contemporaries, and his regarded as the account of Iran's ancient history.
5. This could be attributed both to the swift responses by governments, politicians and opinion leaders, who made serious efforts to clearly between these criminal acts and Islam ...
6. You can create a climate to foster growth, nourish, and protect; but you cannot force or: you must await the growth" ("Candle of the Lord," Ensign, Jan. 1983, 53).
7. While she rejected and fundamentalist thinking, she was an important contributor to several fields of modern political philosophy.
8. Your Honor, would you please instruct counsel... to proceed with a of sensitivity?
9. Family members the hope that their loved ones will return.
10. To control the outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease in cattle in Britain in 2001, thousands of cattle were