

Grandmother

A. Match the lines from the poem to their interpretations.

B. Drag the picture to the sentence that describes it.

A	She told me all about her day	1	She did all the house chores alone without help like washing the towels. It was hard
B	She could not understand why the towel got so heavy when it was wet	2	The grandchild was moved by the condition and loneliness of her grandmother.
C	She'd also sunned the mattresses	3	The grandmother told her grandchild how she spent the day
D	Such tired bones and so much to do	4	The grandmother was lying in her bed.
E	My eyes filled with tears	5	She put the mattresses out in the sun.
F	So many words would have been trapped inside her	6	meaning "an old person". The grandchild had an uncaring attitude to her grandmother.
G	I would have passed by	7	Her body was tired and as an old woman it was hard to do all the chores
H	As if what lay between those bedsheets	8	The grandchild planned to say hi and to stay and listen to her grandmother.
I	Just old life	9	The grandmother was lonely and had no one to share her feelings and difficulties with.	