

Change the sentences using an appropriate modal (may, might, should, can, could, must) Focus on the highlighted verb.

Example: She didn't study for her exam. That was terrible.

(changed sentence) She should have studied for her exam.

1. I strongly believe that Mario stole that backpack.
2. I think that Jenny took the test again. Maybe.
3. I don't believe that Jenny is a bad influence.
4. It was a bad idea that George came to class late.
5. I think that Jenny is working very hard these days.
6. I am sure that Susan finish her report on time.
7. It was a bad idea that Henry left the meeting early.
8. No way Maria said that.