

died, dead or death ?

died (preterite or past participle of the verb (to) die) = deceased, expired, passed away

dead (adjective) = who is not alive anymore

death (noun) = opposed to life

Exercise : Choose between died, dead or death to complete the sentences.

- ① The King _____ 3 days ago.
- ② Vultures are big birds who eat _____ animals.
- ③ 20 people _____ in the rail accident this morning.
- ④ It's a matter of life and _____.
- ⑤ In the movie the 6th sense, the little boy can see _____ people.
- ⑥ The inspector found a _____ man in the river last night.
- ⑦ The hurricane didn't last very long, but many people _____.
- ⑧ The police must arrest this murderer, _____ or alive.