PET READING PART 6

Our new skatepark!

Is there a great skatepark in your town? We've now got the fantastic skatepark ever, and it's all because of my friends and me!

Our old skatepark was full of broken equipment, so none of us ever went there. But we all agreed that we had a better skatepark in our town, we'd use it. And teenagers might come other towns to join us, too.

So I set up an online questionnaire to find out local people wanted. I asked them whether we should improve our old skatepark build a completely new one. People voted to build a new one.

Then we held some events to get money to pay for it. In the end we collected half the cost, and the local council paid the rest. It finally finished last month. So come and try it – you'll have a great time!

Book Review

When I first heard that my two favourite authors were going to write a book together, I was really excited. Now I have read the book, and although I found it enjoyable to read, I think that of the authors writes better on her own.

The story was a young woman who hires a man to become her boyfriend in order to get her dream job. She did this after finding out that the boss preferred to hire people were married or in a relationship as he considered them reliable. But to be honest, I found the situation rather unbelievable, as I don't think bosses can select employees that way these days.

I tell you what happened as that would spoil the story for you. I'll just say that I was reading the book, I predicted what would happen. However. my prediction was wrong, and the ending was a pleasant surprise.
