

INTERVIEWER: What's your favourite gadget? When do you use it?

MEGAN: My favourite gadget is my [redacted] because it [redacted] me to watch my favourite films and TV programmes whilst I get to enjoy playing games. Before I had my tablet, I went to the [redacted] to find out any information that I needed for [redacted] or projects, but now I can do it at home on my tablet.

JOSH: My favourite gadget is my [redacted] phone. I bought it from my auntie last year for £ [redacted] I often use it to [redacted] new facts at school, and on the way home I [redacted] play games on my phone as well. When I get home from school, I often instant message my friends, and [redacted]; I'll browse through my social networking. [redacted] I had a mobile phone, I used the landline, but that seems so [redacted] fashioned now.

LUCY: My favourite gadget is my tablet. This is [redacted] I can go onto social networking sites and talk to my friends and they can help me with homework when I'm struggling. I can also [redacted] photos. This [redacted] me to remember [redacted] times, and I [redacted] watch films. Just the other day, I [redacted] my favourite film but then my mum [redacted] in and [redacted] me I had to stop watching it.

DANIEL: My favourite gadget would probably be my [redacted] console that I got three years [redacted]. It's my favourite gadget because I can play lots of games with my friends and socialize with them. It's an [redacted] for me to have a rest, [redacted] I've done some work that I have been set at college. Just yesterday, I [redacted] with people from all over the world. Lots of people complain about gaming, but for me, it's one of [redacted] things I like to do.