

Amaro

James

Seiji

Tamara

- | | | | | |
|---|-------|-------|-------|--------|
| 1. Who might be an orchestra conductor? | Amaro | Seiji | James | Tamara |
| 2. Who might be a zoo keeper? | Amaro | Seiji | James | Tamara |
| 3. Who might be a chemist? | Amaro | Seiji | James | Tamara |
| 4. Who might be an astronaut? | Amaro | Seiji | James | Tamara |

Focus on Grammar. May/Might

We use might to suggest the possibility of something.

Example: She's walking into our classroom. She might be our new English teacher.

We use may to ask for permission.

Example: May I see your notebook?

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. _____ I stay here tonight? | 4. _____ we enter this room? |
| 2. He looks like you. He _____ be your brother. | 5. You _____ come in if you want to. |
| 3. It _____ be cold there. She's wearing a coat. | 6. I don't understand him. He _____ be Chinese. |

VOCABULARY.

search

baton

feed

perform

Read & Complete

- You shouldn't _____ candy to your dog.
- An orchestra conductor uses a _____.
- You can find out a lot about this artist. Just _____ the Internet.
- The band will _____ tomorrow night.

Match the duties to the professions.

1. She might be a tailor because she...
2. He might be a carpenter because he...
3. He might be a dock worker because he...

- helps in hospitals.
- sews clothes.
- cleans.
- loads and unloads ships.
- makes things out of wood.
- looks after animals.

What tools do they use for their work? Match the tools with the professions.

1. a car mechanic

2. a gardener

3. an electrician

4. a tailor

5. a hairdresser

a screwdriver

a wrench

a sewing machine

a hairdryer

a spade / shovel

Write questions using May I...?

1. You're a gardener. May I borrow your _____ ?
2. You're a hairdresser. _____ ?
3. You're a car mechanic. _____ ?
4. You're an electrician. _____ ?
5. You're a tailor. _____ ?

Complete the sentences with the correct tools.

1. I need to plant a tree.
I need a _____.
2. She needs to sew a shirt.
She needs a _____.
3. We need to fix this lamp.
We need a _____.
4. He needs to repair his car.
He needs a _____.
5. I need to dry my hair.
I need a _____.
6. She needs to paint her room.
She needs a _____.