

At the end of the book Charlie promises to never get in trouble again and his mother tells him that he and trouble "will always be the best of friends."
What does that mean?

Is this how your mother would describe you? Why or why not?

SURF RESCUE