

Name: _____

Non-Fiction Text Features

In this activity, you will match the description or scenario with the non-fiction text feature you would use.

I want to show the countries where a group of animals live.

- diagram

I want to show a series of events that happened over time.

- table of contents

Table of Contents
• Acknowledgments	v
• Preface	xii
• 1 The Beginning	1
• 2 The Great Cloud Gather	5
• 3 Eggs and Holes	9
• 4 Holes	19
• 5 Drowsy	27
• 6 Flowers and a Spider	29
• 7 The Very Black Dances	37
• 8 The Clever Trickster	45
• 9 Endnotes and References	47
• 10 Credit to the Authors	53
• 11 Author’s Favorite Pictures	59

I want to show the labeled parts of a machine.

- map

I want to show a real-life picture of a scientist's laboratory.

- glossary

Glossary
Agents	Small holes (usually 3-5 mm) covered with soft tissue.
Air	White space used in a store design.
All caps	Type using only capital letters.
Annotation	An orange plastic sheet, placed over a packed-up package or a box in another box.
Another	In a large, enclosed structure or room and outside.
Application	A computer program or program that performs a task.
Armchair	An upholstered chair with a high back, where a person sits.
Antennae	The part of a robot extending above the Wright's head.
Attribution	A line identifying the source of a quote.
Bracelet	A wide band-like object extending across the entire page.

I want to describe what is happening in a photograph.

- caption

In this picture you can see penguins sliding on their bellies on the ice.

I want to show a list of all of the things I'm writing about.

- photograph

I want to give a list of unfamiliar words and their definition.

- timeline

