

Comprehension

Elements of a story

Recalling details by asking when?

THE SETTING is where the story mostly takes place. The surroundings where the characters are. The setting can also be when.

© Can Stock Photo

SETTING
Time or moment. Day, month or year

Practice finding the setting of a story with the examples below.

Passage	Where? Place	When? Time
As the day ended, darkness fell in the classroom. All the pigeons that lived in the building went to sleep in the ceilings and all was quiet.
It was midday. All the animals were hungry. They made a lot of noise as they heard the zookeeper bringing their food.
The turtle looked up. He saw the hot sun glimmering through the water. He needed air so he rose to the surface to get a breath. Before he reached, he saw a shadow of a large shark coming his way! Oh no!

Write a WHERE and a WHEN for each scenario below.

Example:

1. The girl ate a hotdog.

- The girl ate a hotdog at lunchtime, in her kitchen.

Do the following.

2. Mikayla went to sleep.

- _____

3. Miss Constantine has class.

- _____

4. The dog peed

- _____

5. Akezelle watched TV.

- _____

6. I played in the rain.

- _____
