

Name: _____ Date: _____ List #: _____

8-The Fashion Show p.80

DIRECTIONS: Read each question and choose the best answer.

- _____ 1. A symbol is a thing that A)
costs something.
B) protects something.
C) covers up something.
D) stands for something.
- _____ 2. To value something means to A)
ask for it.
B) improve it.
C) think it is important.
D) search a long time for it.

DIRECTIONS: The following questions are about "The Fashion Show." Read the question and choose the best answer.

- _____ 3. Which of these is a hint that "The Fashion Show" is told from Ahmed's viewpoint? A)
She includes her mother.
B) She uses descriptive language.
C) She uses quotes from characters.
D) She includes her own thoughts and feelings.
- _____ 4. Which sentence from the story shows Ahmed's viewpoint?

- A) "I started to bawl."
- B) "I switched schools."
- C) "That girl broke my heart."
- D) "She was talking about me and only me."

_____ 5. In the memoir, Ahmedi remembers being treated unkindly by another girl. Ahmedi helps the reader understand how she felt by describing A) how she lost her leg.
B) the pain she felt in her body.
C) the effect the girl's words had on her.
D) the way she wants others to treat her.

_____ 6. What helps Ahmedi decide to enter the fashion show? A)
Her teacher wants her to practice walking.
B) Her friend encourages her to defend her pride.
C) Her mother asks her to wear the Afghan outfits.
D) Her schoolmates expect her to be one of the models.

_____ 7. Ahmedi's attitude at the beginning of her memoir is different from her attitude at the end. It changes from
A) kind to mean.
B) playful to serious.
C) ashamed to proud.
D) selfish to generous.

_____ 8. Read the last line of the memoir..

That night, though it wasn't literally true, I felt that I was wearing high-heeled shoes at last.

This line shows that Ahmedi

- A) feels beautiful in spite of her injured leg.
- B) is proud of the shoes she has modeled.
- C) is taller than she was when she moved to America.
- D) feels responsible for the success of the fashion show.

9. Read these sentences from "The Fashion Show."

My mother beamed. She didn't say much at the time, but later on, at home, she told me she felt proud of me. Imagine that! Proud that her daughter stood up before an audience of strangers and modeled our beautiful Afghan clothes: She, too, has come a long way since we arrived in America.

Describe Farah's mother, using evidence from the text to support your ideas.
