

GUESS WHO I AM

Can you match the God or Goddess to their correct profile? Write the name of the God/Goddess to their correct description.

Zeus, Hades, Poseidon, Ares, Artemis, Apollo, Demeter, Hestia, Hermes, Aphrodite, Athena, Hera

	I'm in charge! Everyone must listen to me, even my two brothers! I like to show my anger by creating lightning storms.
	Don't hate me because I'm beautiful. Some people say I came out of the sea but I'm not sure. What I do know is that my son and I often help people fall in love.
	It gets lonely down here. My brothers never come visit and neither does anyone else....unless they're dead.
	Whew! Delivering messages isn't an easy job, especially when you've got to fly everywhere, but I get the message right...most of the time.
	I'm a busy guy, ask my twin sister. Not only do I watch over musicians, I've also got to make sure the sun gets up every morning.
	Did you know I was born from my father's brain? I guess that's why I value education and learning so much.
	My dad is King of the Gods, but nobody seems to like me much. Maybe it's because I like to fight... a lot.
	If I'm not with my twin brother, I'm probably in the woods with my dogs, looking for animals.
	I've got eyes as blue as the sea. My brother is in charge of Mount Olympus but where I live, I'm in charge. Just ask the sailors or fishermen.
	My sister might be married to Zeus, but if she wants to have a happy home, she better come see me. I can make sure that all her cooking, cleaning and sewing goes smoothly.
	Don't you just love flowers? I do! I love making flowers and things grow out of the ground. I guess you could say I'm like a gardener.
	My husband is the leader of the gods. All the other women better stay away from him unless want to make this queen angry!
