

TOO AND (NOT) ENOUGH

Remember that we use TOO when we want to express that something is excessive which could be a problem. We use ENOUGH when the amount of something is ok or sufficient and we use NOT ENOUGH when the amount is insufficient or less than we want.

Read the sentences and decide which is the correct option to complete them.

1. The coffee was to drink so I drank it happily.
a. hot enough b. too hot
2. Playing chess is for me. I'm not good at those games.
a. difficult enough b. too difficult
3. I didn't buy the jacket because it was
a. big enough b. too big
4. The shoes were so I bought them.
a. comfortable enough b. too uncomfortable
5. She is to start driving a car. She is only 14.
a. too young b. young enough
6. Peter thinks that gardening isn't
a. too exciting b. exciting enough
7. Let's go to bed. It's late to watch a film now.
a. too b. enough
8. The photograph didn't come out because it was
a. dark enough b. too dark
9. Paul thinks that climbing walls isn't for him. He prefers to climb mountains. He loves risks.
a. challenging enough b. too challenging
10. What do you think about doing yoga? Oh! I think it is for me. I prefer more energetic sports.
a. too calm b. calm enough