

EXERCISE 2 RELATIVE PRONOUNS

GRAMMAR NOTES 2–4, 8 Complete the paragraph. Circle the correct answers.

I come from a family which / whom has eight members. I have three sisters and two brothers, who / which made a lot of noise in the house when we were growing up. Our house, which / that is four stories high, has eight bedrooms. The members of my family, who / whom are all interesting, fit nicely into the Type A to D categories of personality types. My mother and father, who / whom both like to be with people a great deal, are extroverts. My favorite brother, with who / whom I still spend a lot of time, is an introvert. My other brother, who / which is a Type A, is a great guy, but always has to be right. My favorite sister, who / whose fiancé is the same age as I am, is a Type A. Of my other two sisters, the one Ø / which I am closer to is a Type C. I'm less close to the sister who / Ø is much older than I am. She's a Type D.

EXERCISE 3 IDENTIFYING AND NONIDENTIFYING CLAUSES

GRAMMAR NOTES 2–7 Combine each pair of sentences into one sentence with an adjective clause, using the word in parentheses. Use the first sentence in each pair as the main clause. Add commas where necessary. The sentences are connected as a story.

1. The company makes computers. I work for the company. (that)

The company that I work for makes computers.

2. The company has existed for fifteen years. It is named Excelsior Computer. (which)

The company which has existed for fifteen years is named Excelsior Computer.

3. The building is located downtown. We do most of our work in the building. (where)

The building where we do most of our work is located downtown.

4. The office has been remodeled. I work in the office. (that)

The office that I work in has been remodeled.

5. Darren Corgatelli is the perfect Type A boss. His wife is my aunt. (whose)

Darren Corgatelli whose wife is my aunt is the perfect Type A boss.

8. I joined the company in 1995. I graduated from college then. (when)

I joined the company in 1995 when I graduated from college.

9. I really admire the personalities of my colleagues. Their advice has been invaluable. (whose)

I really admire the personalities of my colleagues whose advice has been invaluable.

10. I have to do some telemarketing. I don't like telemarketing. (which)

I have to do some telemarketing which I don't like.