

Singular and Plural Possessive Nouns

To show possession for a singular noun, an apostrophe is added before the s.

The dog's bed

To show possession for a plural noun, an apostrophe is added after the s.

The dogs' bed

Irregular plurals:
add the apostrophe
before the s.

The children's bed.

The mice's house.

Rewrite each sentence correctly using singular and plural possessive nouns.

Example: The window of the car needs fixing. → The car's window needs fixing.

Directions: Rewrite each sentence correctly using singular and plural possessive nouns.

- The bottle of the baby was empty.

---

- The library of the town is very popular.

---

- The truck of the firefighters is clean.

---

- Water flooded the classroom of the children.

---

- The backyard of the girls was a jungle!

---

- The police officer walked into the house of the man.

---

- The lunch of the ladies was about to begin.

---

- A worm crawled over the apple of the teacher.

---