Owl Sanctuary

B11 The Suffolk Owl Sanctuary in East Anglia, England, is a wonderful place to watch, study or enjoy the company of owls. There are over sixty owls at the sanctuary and they are all housed in spacious cages. SIMPLE

B12 The sanctuary organises many fun events throughout the year, and there are also flying each day. DEMONSTRATE

B13 There is also an information centre about owls at the sanctuary, an owl hospital, picnic areas, and plenty of for children, including a play area and mini-maze. ACTIVE

B14 Many sick and injured owls are brought to the sanctuary every year for Some require an overnight 'pick-me-up' and can be released back into the wild very quickly, but owls that are more seriously hurt are treated at the sanctuary's owl hospital. TREAT

B15 In to caring for hurt owls, the sanctuary also runs a nest box scheme. ADD

B16 This is the placing of man-made nest boxes in trees in suitable for owls to use. The sanctuary is supported entirely by entrance fees and voluntary donations from members of the public. LOCATE
