

Library Vocabulary

Part I. Directions: Match the word with the correct definition.

- | | |
|----------------------------------|---|
| _____ borrow / check out | a. the list of books, music, movies you can borrow from the library |
| _____ kit | b. books you can read OR listen to on your computer / mobile device. |
| _____ return / check in | c. a collection of information on a subject on the computer. Like an encyclopedia, or an online course. |
| _____ catalogue | d. to take something home from the library. You need a library card to do this. |
| _____ database / online resource | e. to bring what you borrowed BACK to the library. |
| _____ eBook / eAudiobook | f. a container with multiple pieces. Library books sometimes also have a CD too. We put them both together in a bag. |
| _____ hold | g. when you ask the library to get a book for you from another library. We will phone or email you when the item arrives at your library. |
| _____ search | h. the date something must be returned by |
| _____ due | i. to look for something |

Part II. Directions: Now choose the right word for the sentence.

1. I can _____ in the library's _____ for a cookie cookbook.
2. My book is _____ by November 16th. I must _____ it to the library by then.
3. My sister wants to _____ a book on airplanes from the library.
4. I want to _____ a book _____ from the library for our class. It has 8 copies of the book inside it.
5. There is an online _____ for studying for the IELTS exam.
6. Someone else has _____ the book I want, so I will put a _____ on that book. The library will let me know when the book is available.
7. I am reading an _____ on my cell phone. It is _____ in one more week.