

Fill the gaps in the poem with the words on the right in order to tell Roald Dahl's version of The Three Little Pigs.

The Three Little Pigs

The animal I really dig,
Above all others is the _____.
Pigs are noble. Pigs are clever,
Pigs are courteous. However,
Now and then, to break this _____,
One meets a pig who is a fool.

What, for example, would you say,
If strolling through the woods one _____,
Right there in front of you you saw
A pig who'd built his house of _____?
The Wolf who saw it licked his _____,
And said, "That pig has had his chips."
"Little pig, little pig, let me come in!"
"No, no, by the hairs on my chinny-chin-chin!"
"Then I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house in!"

The little pig began to pray,
But Wolfie blew his house _____.
He shouted, "Bacon, pork and ham!
Oh, what a lucky Wolf I _____!"
And though he ate the pig quite fast,
He carefully kept the _____ till last.

Wolf wandered on, a trifle bloated.
Surprise, surprise, for soon he noted
Another little _____ for pigs,
And this one had been built of _____!

"Little pig, little pig, let me come _____!"
"No, no, by the hairs on my chinny-chin-chin!"
"Then I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house in!"
The Wolf said, "Okay, here we _____!"
He then began to blow and blow.
The little pig began to squeal.
He cried, "Oh Wolf, you've had one _____!"
Why can't we talk and make a deal?
The Wolf replied, "Not on your nelly!"
And soon the pig was in his _____.

"Two juicy little pigs!" Wolf cried,
"But still I'm not quite satisfied!"
I know how full my tummy's _____,
But oh, how I adore indulging."
So creeping quietly as a _____,
The Wolf approached another house,
A house which also had _____
A little piggy trying to hide.
