

POSSESSIVES - Adjectives and Pronouns

Adjective
Pronoun

me mine

your yours

her hers

his his

our ours

their theirs

Adjective

It's my honey.
It's your honey.
It's his honey.
It's her honey.
It's our honey.
It's their honey.

Pronoun

It's mine
It's yours
It's his It's hers
It's ours
It's theirs

A possessive pronoun is used instead of a noun:
Anna's car is red. Mine is black.
A possessive adjective is usually used to describe a noun, and it comes before the noun, like other adjectives:

Come along and let us play together.

1) Circle the correct possessive adjective or pronoun.

- That accident was her/hers fault and not my/mine.
- I can give you my/mine red pen if you give me your/yours blue one instead.
- Dish washers were invented to make our/ours life easier.
- Our/ours car is a fast one, but it is not as comfortable as their/theirs, our neighbours.
- She pretends that the book is her/hers, but I know that it is my/mine.
- This is my/mine red dress and it is much nicer than your/yours.
- That is not my/mine umbrella. My/mine is red and your/yours is black and white.
- My/mine house is much bigger than your/yours but our/ours garden is smaller.
- The neighbours have got three children but I don't know their/theirs names.
- Can I use your/yours phone? My/mine doesn't work.

2) Complete each sentence with a suitable pronoun chosen from the box. Use each only once.

my your his her its our their mine yours hers ours theirs

- Is that _____ car over there?
- No, that is Anna's brand new car. It's _____.
- Garry and David are Australian, but _____ parents are English.
- I have a brother. _____ name is Bob.
- It's mine and Bob's too. It's _____.
- That red and blue bike belongs to me. It's _____.
- Unfortunately I left _____ umbrella at home. And now it is raining.
- That's Rita. _____ family lives in London.
- I love "The chateau de Versailles"! _____ gardens are beautiful.
- Have you seen my brothers in the playground. _____ parents are waiting for them.
- Oh! That's Jill and Kevin's dog. It's _____.
- Hi teacher: Is this _____. I found it on the classroom floor.

3) Rearrange the following sentences.

- went to cinema I the a with friend mine of.

- parents with went on of theirs holiday some friends my.

- gave me phone Anna her number.

- whose these? Yours or mine? books are

- going is with friends this evening out Kevin his.

- our have neighbours got I but don't 3 children their names know.

- we took took our and they car took theirs.
