

Write the value of the underlined digit in the empty diamond.

Look at the example then write the expanded form of each 2-digit number in the white boxes.

$$45 = 40 + 5$$

Drag and drop the appropriate word form and drawing form for each 2-digit number.

|  |    |  |
|--|----|--|
|  | 26 |  |
|--|----|--|

Forty-seven

|  |    |  |
|--|----|--|
|  | 33 |  |
|--|----|--|

Thirty-three

|  |    |  |
|--|----|--|
|  | 47 |  |
|--|----|--|

Eighty

|  |    |  |
|--|----|--|
|  | 80 |  |
|--|----|--|

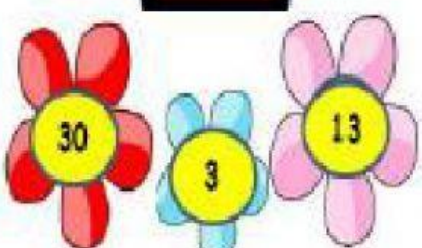

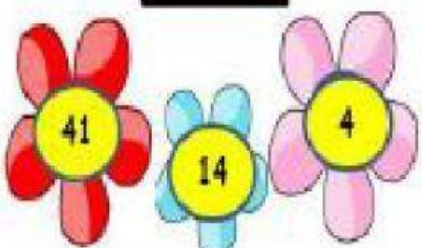

Fifteen

|  |    |  |
|--|----|--|
|  | 15 |  |
|--|----|--|

Twenty-six

Choose the correct standard form for each expanded form.

|                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                             |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|     |     |
|  |  |