

Rephrasing: so / such / too / enough

a) Revise these class notes:

so + adj. → There were so many people it was impossible to find a seat.

such + (adj.) + (a/an) + noun → There were such an awful lot of people it was impossible to find a seat.

too + adj. → There were too many people. / The place was too small.

adj. + enough → The place was not big enough for so many people.

enough + noun → There weren't enough seats for all those people.

b) Rewrite these sentences without changing the meaning:

1. The situation was so critical the government declared an emergency.

It was _____ the government declared an emergency.

2. The exam was too long.

There were _____ in the exam.

3. The pizza was too small for so many children.

There wasn't _____ for so many children.

4. The beds in the hospital were too few for all the sick people.

There weren't _____ in the hospital for all the sick people.

5. The mosquitoes were so big they scared the child.

There were _____ they scared the child.

6. I didn't have enough money to buy the lamb chops.

The lamb chops _____.

7. I couldn't reach the top shelf.

The top shelf _____.

8. We need more computers in the staff room.

There aren't _____ in the staff room.

9. The street was too noisy.

There was _____ traffic in the street.

10. The day was warm enough for us to go for a swim in the lake.

It was _____ that we all went for a swim in the lake.