

1. A small fire started in a local park this morning, but the flames were quickly put by police.
2. Can we put the meeting until tomorrow, please? I am very busy today.
3. Every time I try to add something to the conversation, my brother puts me by saying my opinions are stupid.
4. He found it difficult to put what he wanted to say at the meeting.
5. He put his cigarette before entering the building.
6. He was putting a new fence at his home.
7. I can't put my neighbour's noise any longer; it's driving me mad.
8. I've been putting this assignment for the past week; I just can't seem to get started!
9. My boss always puts everyone at work.
10. She put her boots and got ready to go out in the rain.
11. The online customer service worker couldn't help me, so he put me to a manager.
12. The organization puts a monthly newsletter.
13. They're putting new street signs .
14. Why do you put me all the time?!
15. Will you help me put this desk ?