

Reading Comprehension
Setting # 2

Name: _____ Grade: _____

When and where a story happens is called the setting. The setting can be a real place or a make-believe place. The setting can be long ago, or even in the future. As you read, think about the time and place in the story.

Read each story. Circle the letter by the phrase that completes each sentence.

Joshua walked into the store with his mother. He was going to get a costume for his school's costume party. Joshua looked around the huge store. Aisle after aisle was filled with toys from floor to ceiling. This was going to be fun! 1. The setting is _____ <ul style="list-style-type: none">a) Joshua's schoolb) a large toy storec) Joshua's house	Dora bounced in her seat as the bus moved along a bumpy road. Her class was going on a field trip today. They were going to visit the city zoo. Dora pressed her nose against the glass as she watched the city skyscrapers get closer and closer. They were almost there. 2. The setting is _____ <ul style="list-style-type: none">a) a carb) the city zooc) a bus
Henny felt like she'd been traveling for hours. She looked at her watch and realized her dad had only been driving for two hours. Her family was driving to the state park to go camping for the weekend. Henny could not wait to get there. 3. The setting is _____ <ul style="list-style-type: none">a) a state parkb) Henny's housec) a car	Joey stood shivering at the edge of the water. His friend, Dan, jumped right in. "Come on, Joey, the water's warm", said Dan. Joey let his toes slip into the water. "Hey, it's not too bad", said Joey. He held his breath and jumped in near his friend. 4. The setting is _____ <ul style="list-style-type: none">a) a poolb) a storec) a forest