Put the paragraphs in the correct order (number them from 1 - 5):

() On the other hand, there are some drawbacks to having fast food. Firstly, this change in our life can have some serious effects. One effect is on health, many individuals in Bahrain are becoming ill. These people will be less productive and suffer from serious conditions such as cancer and heart diseases. Another disadvantage is the loss of our tradition and life style. A further disadvantage is economic. Fast food is expensive. Fast food restaurants are foreign corporations, so profits leave our country.

() In the past, people in Bahrain used to be simple, sit and eat the meals with their families at home. Today, however, people particularly young people, prefer to hang out with their friends and try new meals.

() Everything in life has its advantages and disadvantages and fast food is one of them.

() In conclusion, fast food can have serious health problems and social effects. People should learn to choose the good things carefully.

() On the one hand, there are several good things about it. On top of that, many parents are working long hours so, they don't have enough time to cook to their children. Mothers are working and this result in less time being available for cooking meals. Added to that, people like to try new products and varieties of food. Also, the rapid development of the country has meant that young people have money to spend, so in their free time they will hang out with their friends and go to fast food restaurants.
