

Practice 15.1 H Identifying Demonstrative, Interrogative, and Indefinite Adjectives

Read the sentences. Then, write the adjective in each sentence and label it demonstrative, Interrogative, and Indefinite.

EXAMPLE This marvel of geology attracts tourists from across the country.

ANSWER This-demonstrative

1. Could you hand me one of those pears, please?
2. Which poem are you going to recite in class?
3. This watch was a gift from a friend.
4. Both students gave presentations.
5. There are many acts auditioning for the show.
6. What kind of music do you like most?
7. I need to organize these books and then dust the shelves.
8. Have you made some necklaces to give as gifts?
9. Whose sculptures Will be on display at the gallery?
10. Each child made a mobile to take home.

PRACTICE 15.11 Using Demonstrative, Interrogative, and Indefinite Adjectives in Sentences

Read the words. Then, write a sentence in which you use each word as the type of adjective indicated in parentheses.

EXAMPLE which (interrogative)

ANSWER Which road should we take to the cabin?

11. that (demonstrative)
12. any (indefinite)
13. several (indefinite)
14. those (demonstrative)
15. some (indefinite)
16. what (interrogative)
17. both (indefinite)
18. which (interrogative)
19. this (demonstrative)
20. whose (interrogative)