

PREPOSITIONS OF TIME: IN, ON, AT

1. Write the correct preposition.

- |                             |                                   |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| a. Monday                   | k. 11:05                          |
| b. July                     | l. 1 st September 1994 |
| c. the evening              | m. June                           |
| d. lunchtime                | n. 15 th May           |
| e. 2007                     | o. my birthday                    |
| f. 18 th century | p. 1988                           |
| g. the weekend              | q. midday                         |
| h. August                   | r. 3:30                           |
| i. Friday afternoon         | s. winter                         |
| j. Christmas Day            | t. Sundays                        |

2. Complete the sentences with the correct preposition.

- a. I get up      7 o'clock      weekdays and      9 o'clock      the weekends.
- b. In England it often rains      spring.
- c. My father is a doctor and he sometimes works      night.
- d. Our neighbours moved in next door      1998.
- e. James proposed to Linda      sunset. It was very romantic.
- f. We usually go rollerblading      Saturday morning.
- g. Brenda has lunch      noon.
- h. I go to school      the morning, I do my homework      the afternoon, I watch
TV      the evening and I sleep      night.
- i. We have Maths      Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.
- j. My parents got married      26th December      1982.