

NATURAL DISASTERS

CLUES: Science Book pages 120-123

Join definitions with the name of natural disaster:

opening of the earth surface which allows extremely hot mixture to escape below earth surface.

Submerging of surrounding areas due to overflow of rivers.

trembling or shaking of the earth's surface.

Violent storm as a rotating funnel-shaped cloud that extends from thunderstorm to ground.

Series of very huge waves moving speedily towards the shore.

The land dries up due to prolonged dry weather

