

1. Tina is a very [sociable / courageous / generous] person; she loves meeting new people.
2. Alex is very [ambitious / generous / encouraging] and wants to climb Mount Everest before he turns 25.
3. Tim is a very [unselfish / intelligent / ambitious] boy; he gets straight As in all subjects.
4. I think I will apply for the teaching [position / risk / support] at Green Park School.
5. I trust John. He's very [intelligent / reliable / unselfish].
6. The company's success is due to its talented and [courageous / dedicated / sociable] employees.
7. When I need help, I know I can [trust / remain / patient] you.
8. Jake is a very [dedicated / brave / willing] boy. He is not afraid of snakes.
9. The new manager is a [strength / caring / hard-working] young man who works until very late at night.
10. I put a lot of [reward / risk / effort] into my work.
11. After training hard every evening for two weeks, the team had [made / rewarded / reached] their limit and decided to take a break for a few days.
12. The teacher's [passionate / influence / inspiration] on the children continued many years after they'd left the school.
13. I have always looked [into / down / up] to my parents, because they do so much for me.
14. Lucy has a powerful [personality / reward / influence].
15. The Business School of our university is [pushed / admired / encouraged] by many.
16. Teaching is a very [risky / effort / rewarding] job.

17. Caroline is [passionate / physical / mental] about art. She paints all the time.
18. Studying is a [inspiration / mental / physical] activity which requires frequent breaks.
19. I know that my parents will always give me their [position / speed / support]b when I need it.
20. Henry gave [up / on / in] trying to fix the toilet and called a plumber.