

Multiple intelligences

1. Read the text about multiple intelligences.

2. Choose the best alternative:

- a. Intelligence means / doesn't mean knowing lots of facts.
- b. There is / isn't just one type of intelligence.
- c. You can / can't easily measure intelligence.
- d. Your intelligence stays / doesn't stay the same throughout your life.
- e. Your circumstances in life affect / don't affect your intelligence.

3. Look at the table of Gardner's Multiple Intelligences. where do you think these go?

- |               |                                 |
|---------------|---------------------------------|
| a. Dance      | d. Architecture                 |
| b. Singing    | e. Being in control of yourself |
| c. Literature | f. Scientific thinking          |
|               | g. Teaching people              |

4. watch the video. which new intelligence is mentioned?

5. Do you think it's important? why (not)?

6. which intelligence do you have? Explain briefly.

