

Chapter 14: Injun Joe's Revenge

A: Match the two halves to make true sentences

|                        |                                 |
|------------------------|---------------------------------|
| Jack saw the steamboat | walking home.                   |
| Huck saw the children  | where Tom was.                  |
| Huck wondered          | coming back.                    |
| Huck saw Injun Joe     | was going to bury the treasure. |
| Huck thought Injun Joe | and followed him.               |

B: Read. Drag and drop.

|       |      |      |      |      |          |
|-------|------|------|------|------|----------|
| house | hill | face | door | wife | stranger |
|-------|------|------|------|------|----------|

Injun Joe met a _____ and walked up the _____ .

They stopped next to Mrs. Douglas' _____. Huck heard that Injun Joe was going to get revenge on the Judge's _____. He was going to cut her _____ and her ears. Huck ran down the hill and knocked on Judge Thatcher's _____ .

C: Put the events in chronological order

____ Huck told the sheriff that Becky and Tom were lost in Mc Dougal's caves.

____ Huck heard the sound of a gun and ran away down the hill.

1 Huck told Judge Thatcher Injun Joe's plan.

____ The judge and some men came out of the house and ran up the hill.

____ They put a big piece of metal across the entrance of the caves.

____ The people of St. Petersburg looked for Tom and Becky for two days.