

Vegetables for Dinner

Every day, Grandpa worked in his garden.
He grew lots of vegetables.

Every day, Grandpa picked some vegetables for dinner.

It was hard work.

Every day, Grandma cooked the dinner. She cut up the vegetables.

Every day, Grandma cooked the vegetables
in a big pot.

It was hard work.

One day Grandpa fell over. He fell over and hurt his arm. Grandpa said, “ oh no! I can’t pick the vegetables for dinner.”

Grandma said, “oh no! I have no vegetables. I can’t cook the dinner!”

“ I will pick the vegetables for you,” Paul said.

Paul went into the garden. He picked lots of vegetables. It was hard work!

Grandma cut up the vegetables. She cooked the dinner. She cooked the vegetables in a big pot. Grandma was happy. Grandpa was happy too.

“Thank you for picking the vegetables Paul,” they said.

Write True or False for each sentence

1. Every day, Grandma worked in the garden.
2. Grandpa grew lots of vegetables.
3. Every day, Grandpa picked some vegetables for dinner.
4. Every day, Grandpa cooked the dinner.
5. Grandma cooked the vegetables in a small pot.

Answer these questions

6. Why do you think it was hard work to pick the vegetables.
7. Why do we need food?

8. Do you think Paul is a kind boy and why?