

Then and Now

Today, communication and travel _____ BE fast, and it's easy to get news. But a long time ago, things _____ BE very different.

Communication

Long ago, people _____ USE letters to communicate. They _____ MAIL letters to friends and families. Letters were carried by horse and cart, and later by train or boat. Today, communication _____ BE different and letters are carried by airplane. We can _____ USE e-mail, text messages, or phone calls to communicate quickly with friends and family all over the world.

My great-grandma _____ MAIL a letter to her friend in London. It _____ TAKE two months to get there. I _____ SEND e-mails to my friend in London. She _____ CAN read them right away.

News

Before newspapers, people _____ TALK to each other to get news. Then people _____ PRINT the news on paper and newspapers _____ START . Later they _____ LISTEN to the radio for news. Today we can get news any time we _____ WANT . They _____ LISTEN to news on the radio at 6 o'clock every day. Now they _____ WATCH the news on TV and _____ READ it on the Internet anytime they want.

Travel

People long ago _____ WALK from place to place or _____ TRAVEL by horse and cart. When they _____ TRAVEL long distances they _____ GO by train or ship. It _____ BE slow and difficult. Today we can travel in cars, fast trains, buses, or in airplanes to go to places that _____ BE far way. We can _____ TRAVEL to places across the ocean or across the world in a day. Travel _____ BE fast and easy now. People _____ TRAVEL for two days from New York to Boston. It _____ TAKE 30 minutes to travel from New York to Boston today. I of I
