

Present Simple, affirmative

We use the present simple to talk about activities in a routine. Sometimes we use a time expression to say when or how often something happens.

I walk my dog every day.

We go to school from Mondays to Fridays.

On Saturdays, you wash the car.

They swim in the afternoons.

For the third person singular, we add s or es to the end of the verb.

She feeds the birds on sunny days.

He brushes the horse every morning.
