STUDENT´S NAME……DATE……

1. Choose the expression to substitute for the green word or words in each sentence below. Idioms from previous lessons are indicated by number.

a. I think that you should remove the last two sentences in the paragraph.
   1. take out
   2. pick out
   3. talk over

b. If you don't hurry in completing your school work, you'll do a better job.
   1. get off
   2. lie down
   3. take your time

c. He is a very lazy person when it comes to looking for a new job.
   1. couch potato
   2. making a difference to
   3. Sweet

d. I don't like to go to the movies alone.
   1. as usual
   2. by myself
   3. on purpose

e. Do you have a moment to try to find my keys with me?
   1. to talk over
   2. to look for
   3. to get up

f. The child said that she didn't break the window deliberately.
   1. on purpose
   2. all day long
   3. making a difference

g. Man, Messi is a very good soccer player!
   1. get along with
   2. stand up
   3. Sweet

liveworksheets.com

h. It's cold outside; you'd better place a sweater on yourself.
    1. sit down
    2. put on
    3. take out

i. Fortunately, Marie is associating well with her new co-workers.
    1. calling on
    2. talking over
    3. getting along with

j. Don't sit on the dirty ground like that; rise right now!
    1. get up
    2. lie down
    3. sit down

2. Fill in each blank with the appropriate form of an idiomatic expression from this unit only.

Jean: Hi, Pete. Did you come _____?

Pete: Yes, Sarah wasn't able to come. She's at the dentist's office.

Jean: Oh? Why is that?

Pete: The dentist has to _____ one of her teeth. She has been complaining of pain _____ week _____.

Jean: That's too bad. Well, I'm glad you're early.

Pete: Why? I didn't come early _____.

Jean: I know, but now we have time to _____ that important matter about the new employee.

Pete: You mean the employee who's not _____ her co-workers?

Jean: Exactly. But please, take off your coat first and _____ on the couch.

Pete: Thanks.

liveworksheets.com

1. Choose the expression to substitute for the green word or words in each sentence below. Idioms from previous lessons are indicated by number.

a. You'll have to locate his number in the telephone book.
   1. to think over
   2. to wait on
   3. to look up

b. Let's go on a stroll downtown this weekend.
   1. take a walk
   2. take a trip
   3. wait on someone

c. You ought to spend a minimum of an hour outside in the fresh air.
   1. in the least
   2. as usual
   3. at least

d. Would you like me to help you choose a new dress for the dance?
   1. pick out
   2. try on
   3. put away

e. I've always wanted to journey to Alaska during the summer.
   1. to take a walk
   2. to take a trip
   3. to take a stroll

f. It took a long time for the store clerk to serve us.
   1. to call on
   2. to take part in
   3. to wait on

g. I don't enjoy this hot, humid weather to any degree.
   1. at all
   2. up to now
   3. at last

liveworksheets.com

h. Our guest will arrive soon; please remove your dirty clothes from sight.
    1. try on
    2. put away
    3. get off

i. I'd better switch on the light so that we can see better in here.
    1. be in on
    2. turn on
    3. try on

j. James didn't want to be involved in the preparations for the conference.
    1. to take part in
    2. to take place
    3. to try on

2. Fill in each blank with the appropriate form of an idiomatic expression from this unit only. Practice this dialogue with a partner.

Mara: Where's the store clerk?

Ted: I don't know. It's taking him too long to _____ us.

Mara: I don't like the service in this store _____. I feel like leaving right now.

Ted: Oh, no, let's not do that. How many dresses have you tried on _____?

Mara: Oh, I've tried on about eight dresses.

Ted: Well, after all that time and effort, you should buy _____ one, don't you think?

Mara: No, never mind. I'm so upset that I need to _____ outside in the fresh air.

Ted: Mara, I think that you're making the wrong decision. You should _____ it _____ first. This is really a nice dress at a great price.

Mara: Well ... I guess a few more minutes of waiting won't make a difference.

liveworksheets.com