

DO + DON'T -

I like doing puzzles.

I don't like doing puzzles.

You love dancing.

You don't love dancing.

We like playing chess.

We don't like playing chess.

They love singing songs.

They don't love singing songs.

DO + DON'T -

She likes swimming.

She doesn't like swimming.

He loves playing basketball.

He doesn't love playing basketball.

It likes sleeping.

It doesn't like sleeping.

Complete the sentences with don't and doesn't.

I like swimming. (+)

I _____ like swimming. (-)

You like P.E (+)

You _____ - like P.E. (-)

We like playing hide and seek. (+)

We _____ like playing hide and seek. (-)

They like learning about plants and animals. (+)

They _____ like learning about plants and animals. (-)

She loves reading and writing in English. (+)

She _____ love reading and writing in English. (-)

He likes reading stories about past times. (+)

He _____ like reading stories about past times. (-)

It loves sleeping on the floor. (+)

It _____ love sleeping on the floor. (-)