

SAR, Wind, Anchor, Cargo, Emergency on Board

Do the crossword with terms relating to SAR, wind, cargo, anchor and emergency on board. When there are 2 or more words, write them without spaces between them.

- To be on the direction from which the wind blows is called ____
- ____ is a case of death in an accident or shipping disaster.
- To let out a greater length of cable is to ____ the anchors (2 words)
- The ____ is the person designated to co-ordinate search & rescue operations within a specified area. (2 words)
- To ____ is to evacuate crew and passengers from a vessel following a distress. (2 words)
- A ____ is a person who continues to live in spite of being in a shipping disaster.
- ____ of anchor is when the anchor has its own cable twisted around it.
- The ____ is a group of crew members trained for fighting flooding in a vessel. (3 words)
- The separation of goods which for different reasons must not be stowed together is called ____
- ____ indicates whether different goods can be safely stowed together in one cargo space.
- The place assigned to crew and passengers where they meet according to the muster list when they hear the corresponding alarm or announcement is the ____ (2 words)
- The movement of the anchor over the sea bottom to control the movement of the vessel is called ____ of anchor.
- The anti-clockwise change of direction is called ____
- ____ are the loudspeakers in the vessel's accommodation or on deck through which announcements are made (acronym + word)
- The involuntary movement of the anchor over the sea bottom is called ____
- The course to be steered at the beginning of a search, directed by the On-Scene Co-ordinator or other authorised person is called ____ (2 words)
- The transverse movement of cargo, especially bulk cargo, caused by rolling or a heavy list is called cargo ____
- A wind is ____ when it is constantly changing speed and direction
- The group of dangerous or hazardous goods, harmful substances or marine pollutants in sea transport as classified in the IMDG Code is referred to as ____ (acronym + word)
- To be on the sheltered side of the ship is called ____